The defendant has a history of failing to appear and has been infracted on 23 occasions during the past five years while on supervision since 2005, reflecting an apparent inability or unwillingness to comply with court orders. He has unverifiable employment status and substance abuse problems.

- (2) Defendant also poses a risk of danger to the community. He was previously convicted of homicide, which was reduced to manslaughter in the second degree due to a ruling by the Washington State Supreme Court. When he committed this crime, he was on supervision from another conviction, indicating an inability or unwillingness to follow supervision. As discussed above, he was infracted on 23 occasion over the last five years while under state supervision.
 - (3) The current charges began with an observed brutal assault on another person.
- (4) When he was arrested, he admitted to law enforcement that he was a member of the 74 Hoover Crips gang.
- (5) No conditions or combination of conditions other than detention are apparent that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings or the safety of the community.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with
